Department of Information Systems Faculty of Commerce

The Centre for IT and National Development in Africa (CITANDA) in the Department of Information Systems, Faculty of Commerce is seeking to appoint a Lecturer for a full-time permanent soft-funded position starting from the 1st January 2019. The incumbent will be expected to support and conduct research, teach, and contribute to the development of the Enterprise Systems Education for Africa (ESEFA) research programme. The successful person will manage the SAP Academic Competence Centre at UCT and report to the ESEFA Principal Investigator (PI).

Minimum requirements:

- Master's degree in Information Systems (or related discipline) PLUS evidence of active registration and study for a PhD in Information Systems.
- TERP10 or equivalent SAP certification.
- At least 5 years' lecturing experience in higher education.
- Demonstrable technical skills in programming, databases, web design and business intelligence.
- Proven experience in curriculum and workshop design and delivery.
- Special didactic expertise in Enterprise Resource Planning, Business Intelligence and Business Processes.
- Proven experience in course organization and management of Learning Management Systems.
- Be able to maintain and extend a network with academics across sub-Saharan Africa.
- Research experience and a publication record.

Responsibilities:

- Research:
 - Undertake relevant research on the ESEFA programme including analysis of programme evaluation data.
 - Publish research findings annually.
 - Market, develop and grow the collaborative research and teaching network with academics from the other Universities in the programme across Sub-Saharan Africa.
 - Submit funding proposals and support the PI in writing grant applications
- Teaching:
 - Teach short courses and train the lecturer courses across sub-Saharan Africa using SAP S/4HANA, SAP Lumira and other associated technologies.
 - Manage the testing and updating of existing workshops as technology changes.
 - Supervise post-graduate student research projects on ESEFA topics.
 - Teach undergraduate and postgraduate courses in the Department as required.
- Administration:
 - Manage the administration of the research programme's revenue and expenses.
 - Manage the LMS course environment including the associated social components, the online Quiz component, and the online web and social platform resources.
 - Manage support for the SAP workshops and online quizzes for all ESEFA partner universities, forwarding technical problems through to the University Competence Centre.
 - Contribute to leadership and/or administration roles at course, departmental, Faculty and/or University level, as appropriate to the job level

The 2018 annual remuneration package, including benefits, is R639, 848.
