The UCT Graduate School of Business is recruiting for exciting new roles. To assist us with our growth objectives, we are seeking vibrant and curious individuals to join the UCT GSB team of dedicated faculty and staff. Whilst we seek candidates across all business school disciplines, we particularly seek those with expertise in the following fields:

- Strategy and Entrepreneurship
- Strategy as Practice
- Operations Management
- Social Innovation/Systems Innovation

The UCT GSB has established itself as the preferred provider of internationally accredited programmes in South Africa. The school enjoys AACSB, AMBA and EQUIS international accreditations. Additionally, the UCT GSB has an ecosystem of centres of excellence. Your role at the UCT GSB is to pursue engaged scholarship.

Key responsibilities will be to:

- Develop and publish research and attract research funding
- Teach graduate-level core and elective courses to post-experience students
- Supervise Master’s and PhD students
- Participate in the executive education courses offered by the UCT GSB
- Be a team player, involved in and committed to the school and its role in the wider community

Your profile:

- A doctoral degree
- Excellence as a learning facilitator and teacher
- Proven publication and research-funding record (especially for more senior positions)
- International exposure or industry experience would be a strong advantage
- Fluency in oral and written English
- Interdisciplinarity and executive education experience are preferred

We offer:

- A caring and vibrant team in a strong organisational culture
- Teaching opportunities on some of the most innovative programmes on the continent, at the interface between the developing and developed world
- Diverse networks of relationships with business, government, and civil society both nationally and internationally
- Opportunities for earning additional income and corporate exposure in executive education
- A fascinating school, which strives for academic excellence and societal relevance
