

LECTURER: VOCAL STUDIES

(Fixed Term contract; 1 Feb 2019 to 31 Jan 2020)

South African College of Music Faculty of Humanities

As one of the largest and most diverse tertiary music institutions in South Africa, the South African College of Music pursues a wide range of musical activities. Besides the flourishing opera school, there is a strong practical tradition in the field of African and World music, Jazz and Western music performance as well as departments in musicology, composition, music education and music technology.

We are seeking to appoint for one year from 1 February 2019 to 31 January 2020 a Lecturer in Vocal Studies with an emerging track record in teaching and performance of vocal repertoire in the Western music tradition. The successful applicant will form part of a team of lecturers dedicated to the teaching of all aspects of the theory and practice of performance of Western music at undergraduate and postgraduate level.

Requirements:

- MMus in performance (vocal studies, western tradition) or close to completion, or equivalent professional credentials;
- An active performing career, showing performance fluency in German, French and Italian;
- Experience of undergraduate teaching, both practical and theoretical;
- Knowledge of the standard operatic and art song repertoire.

Keyboard skills would be an advantage.

Responsibilities:

- Teaching of undergraduate and postgraduate courses in the areas of practical studies, vocal pedagogy and repertoire;
- Contributing to musical performance at the South African College of Music;
- Administrative duties.

The annual cost of employment, including benefits (where applicable), is R 334 743 to R 478 207 (2018 rates).
