

ASSOCIATE PROFESOR / PROFESSOR

Department of Public Law

Faculty of Law

We invite applications for an academic post in the Department of Public Law within the Faculty of Law for appointment as soon as possible in 2020.

We wish to appoint an applicant with an excellent academic record, with the qualities for academic leadership and who wishes to be part of a Faculty in which a critical approach to the study of the law is valued. As the successful candidate, you will be expected to play a full part in teaching, research and supervision in the broad area of public law. Core courses offered by the Department include Constitutional Law; Administrative Law; International Law; Criminal Law; Criminal Procedure and Evidence. For more information see www.uct.ac.za/publiclaw.

You will also be expected to fulfil the administrative functions typically associated with the level at which you are appointed. A willingness to undertake socially responsive activities is also required.

Candidates suitable for appointment must have:

- A doctoral degree in law;
- Lecturing experience in public law will be an advantage;
- A record of productive postgraduate student supervision;
- An established research record with regularly produced peer-reviewed outputs of quality in public law
- Evidence of national and international recognition and impact of their scholarship.

The annual remuneration packages for 2019, including benefits, at the respective levels are as follow:

- Associate Professor - R1, 002 002
