

Associate Professor/Professor

Department of Public Law Faculty of Law

We invite applications for an academic post in the Department of Public Law within the Faculty of Law for appointment as soon as possible in 2019.

We wish to appoint an applicant with an excellent academic record, with the qualities for academic leadership and who wishes to be part of a Faculty in which a critical approach to the study of the law is valued. As the successful candidate, you will be expected to play a full part in teaching, research and supervision in the broad area of public law at both the LLB and postgraduate (PhD/LLM/MPhil) levels. You will also be expected to fulfil the administrative functions typically associated with the level at which you are appointed. A willingness to undertake socially responsive activities is also required.

Candidates suitable for appointment must have:

- A doctoral degree or equivalent level of scholarship specialising in the area of public law;
- Extensive lecturing experience in the area of public law;
- A comprehensive record of productive postgraduate student supervision in the area of public law;
- An established research record with regularly produced peer-reviewed outputs of quality in the area of public law evidenced by standing of journals or publications, or citations; and
- Evidence of national and international recognition and impact of their scholarship.

The annual remuneration packages, including benefits for 2018 at the respective levels are as follows:

- Associate Professor - R 938 204
- Professor - R 1 167 756
