

SENIOR LECTURER/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: CRIMINOLOGY

Department of Public Law

Faculty of Law

We invite applications for an academic post specializing in the field of criminology in the Department of Public Law within the Faculty of Law for appointment as soon as possible in 2019.

The successful candidate will be located in the Centre of Criminology (www.criminology.uct.ac.za). We wish to appoint an applicant with an excellent academic record, with the qualities for academic leadership and who wishes to be part of a Faculty in which a critical approach to the study of criminology is valued. As the successful candidate, you will be expected to play a full part in teaching, research and supervision in the area of criminology at both the LLB and postgraduate (PhD/LLM/MPhil) levels. You will also be expected to fulfil the administrative functions typically associated with the level at which you are appointed. A willingness to undertake socially responsive activities is also required.

Candidates suitable for appointment as a Senior Lecturer must have:

- At least a Masters degree specialising in the field of criminology, but a doctoral degree or equivalent level of scholarship will be an advantage;
- Lecturing experience in criminology and/or other appropriate work experience;
- Evidence of ability to supervise effectively academic research; and
- An established research record with publications in the field of criminology.

Candidates suitable for appointment as an Associate Professor must have:

- A doctoral degree or equivalent level of scholarship specialising in the field of criminology;
- Extensive lecturing experience in criminology;
- A comprehensive record of productive postgraduate student supervision in the area of criminology; and
- An established research record with regularly produced peer-reviewed scholarship of quality in the area of criminology as evidenced by standing of journals or publications, or citations.

The annual remuneration packages, including benefits for 2018 at the respective levels are as follows:

- Senior Lecturer - R 786 717
- Associate Professor - R 938 204
